COMMUNICATION REGARDING FEE CALCULATION

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

This communication concerns a clerical error in the calculation of the number of claims and related fees presented by multiple dependent claims in Patentee's November 27, 1998 and December 5, 1998 Amendments in regard to the above-referenced patent.

Within the last two months, it was brought to Patentee's attention that there may have been an error in the calculation of claims for payment of fees related thereto. Specifically, in a fee calculation chart in the transmittal letter accompanying a November 27, 1998 Amendment and a December 5, 1998 Amendment, the total claims presented appear to have been mistakenly totaled, resulting in a miscalculation of fees. It appears that such claims were inadvertently treated as single claims, rather than multiple dependent claims, when the fee owing for consideration was calculated. What Patentee believes upon its review to be the correct number of claims for calculating such fees is set forth in the following chart:

Amendment date	Claim number used in Amendment	Corrected claim number	Difference
11/27/1988	4	286	282
12/5/1998	2	6	4
Total			286

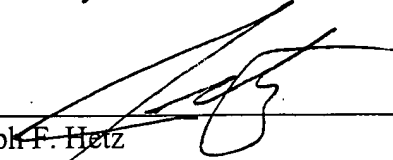

In the transmittal letters that accompanied the Amendments, Patentee had requested and authorized the United States Patent and Trademark Office to charge any additional fees associated with the Amendments to Patentee's deposit account in the event additional fees were appropriate. After the recent review of the deposit account's activity history, it does not appear that the Office had charged any additional fees to the account. To date, the Office has not issued any notice of fee deficiency to Patentee.

Accordingly, after concluding its review of this matter, Patentee is herewith enclosing a check for $5,148 to pay additional total claims fee using the current fee schedule for a large entity (286 additional total claims at a rate of $18 per additional claim). The Commissioner also is hereby authorized to charge payment of any additional fees or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account No. 23-1925. A duplicate copy of this sheet is enclosed.

If there are any questions concerning this Communication, please contact the undersigned attorney at (312) 321-4719.
